

Job Description – Choir Director at Community Presbyterian Church of Yarnell

- A committed Christian with an understanding of faith and practice.
- One who has a musical background with experience in directing volunteer choirs who learn largely by repetition and memorization.
- One seeking to understand the musical taste of this particular church and to discover productive ways to increase music appreciation and musicianship.
- One who is a team member, working with the pastor, instrumentalist and Worship Committee in planning for worship and other gatherings.
